

Design to Retail

- Introducing Technology into the Textile Supply Chain

Agenda

Wednesday, 22nd October 2008
9.15am – 4.00pm
Registration & Coffee
	9:15 – 10.00
- Introduction & Welcome; Peter Stephenson Chairman TechniTex	10.00–10.15
- Opening remarks- A View from Westminster; Lord Haskell Honorary President TechniTex, Chairman of Materials UK	10:15-10:20
- "Gore-Tex conducting the value chain"- Protecting brand reputation through supply chain Management Colin Bell, Product Specialist, Motorsports Garments, Gore-Tex	10.20-10.50
- Coffee Break	10.50 -11.20
- Designers with business skills and supply chain insight David Tyler, Clothing Design and Technology, MMU	11.20–11.50
- Plasma processing for footwear. From concept to production for worldwide brands. Steve Coulson, P2i	11.50 -12.20
- Lunch + Networking	12:20-13:35
- Implementing existing technologies into new markets – Electronic functionality within garments, Supply chain challenges David Lussey, Peratech	13.35 -13.55
- Driving unique materials to the market Light Emitting Materials , A new material for designers Sital Chandarana, Director, Luminites	13.55-14.25
- Coffee Break	14:25 -14:50
- Policing the Supply Chain- Environment, Health & Legislation considerations in the supply chain Tara Young, Tesco	14:50 - 15:25
- Implementing Sustainable textiles into the Supply Chain Mark Sumner, Marks & Spencer - Cotton and Sustainability	15:25 -16.00
End of Day	